

AT HOME IN A MINNESOTA BARN

a COUNTRY classic

At a time when proud, old barns are disappearing across the Heartland, George and Nancy Hof transformed a classic beauty into a one-of-a-kind home. Amid the rolling southeast Minnesota countryside, their barn house recaptures the dignity and simplicity of these handsome structures that once dominated rural Midwest landscapes.